

---

Eagle View PTA Meeting Minutes

Date/Time: November 10, 2009 7:00 p.m.

Location: Eagle View Elementary Library

---

The PTA business meeting was called to order by President Jennifer Greenhagen at 7:00 P.M. There were 12 members present. Jennifer announced that the Scholastic Book Fair was a great success making the same amount as last year and we had a great turn out for volunteers. This year the PTA was able to provide a large number of books for those students unable to afford them and several teachers have expressed their thanks for this support.

Secretary's Report

The minutes from the October 6, 2009 meeting were passed out for review and one correction was noted. Ms. Vicsonti is the math specialist not Michelle Calabro. The error will be corrected. Attendance sheet, agenda, budget, plus any other material relevant to the meeting were available. Becky Wyland made a motion to approve the October minutes and the motion was seconded. Motion Carried.

The minutes from the meetings will be available on the Eagle View PTA website once approved by the PTA, located at <http://www.eagleviewpta.com>

Treasurer's Report

Jennifer Greenhagen completed the treasurers report announcing that the audit has been completed and is ready for the VA PTA. An update on the audit will be provided as it moves through the process. Motion was made to approve the audit, motion was seconded and carried.

Principal's Report

- Dr. Granada was present and announced that her scheduled meet and greet with the parents has been re-scheduled and she will be available all day during the Thanksgiving luncheon to meet everyone. She wanted to thank everyone for supporting Bingo Night and making it a great event for our families.
- The parent teacher committees are still in need of parent volunteers. The list will be posted on the website for all to see the dates and times that meetings are held.
- Dr. Granada emphasized the importance of the input from the community in regards to the anticipated $176 million shortfall for Fairfax County. This input is ongoing via dialogue meetings on the FCPS.edu website. Everyone is encouraged to provide their voice. Some programs that have made Eagle View the great school it is are being looked at for cuts such as full day Kindergarten, and Band/Strings.

- Mrs. Wyland and Ms. McDonald's classrooms had visitors from Sweden to see and learn about Eagle View's math techniques.
- Please visit the Fairfax County Public Schools website for H1N1 updates and the policies and procedures. Eagle View is in compliance with all Fairfax County and CDC guidelines. <http://www.fcps.edu>

Old Business

Sally Foster – Reconciliation is complete and Eagle View made $2,700 less than last year. Great news.....Online sales continue throughout the school year.

Bingo Night – Profit $850. Thanks to Jill Indugula for coordinating this wonderful event and to all of the volunteers who helped make it a great success.

Gift Cards – Deadline to order gift cards is November 23rd. They will be available for pick up prior to the December 8th meeting.

New Business

- Laurie Rothenberg from Bookworm Central was present to propose a game night at Eagle View prior to one of the PTA general meetings. Their company is located in Manassas and will make a delivery to Eagle View at no cost. They have over 400 “educational” games for ages 3 to adult To order games and see the virtual book fair, please visit their website at: www.bookwormcentral.com. More information will be provided when a date is scheduled to display games and order through the PTA.
- Susan Crystal provided an update on the Southwestern Regional Planning Study Committee. This is a new approach to the boundary study process in with the community will be able to voice their opinion before boundaries are changed through the committee. The committee consists of 23 schools with 2 representatives for each school. The study is 6 weeks in length and will look at the overcrowding issues that face our schools over the next 5 years. These issues include: changing boundaries, building new schools, and whether or not renovations will be made or trailers brought in.

There being no further business to discuss, the meeting adjourned at 7:45 P.M. The next meeting is scheduled for December 10, 2009 at 7:00 P.M.

Respectfully Submitted,
Michelle McDonald
Secretary